

Second Amendment to Schedule “A” of the
*Pan Canadian Occupational Health and Safety Reconciliation Agreement

Sector:	Occupational Health and Safety
Referenced Standard:	2021 CSA Z94.4.1 Performance of Filtering Respirators
Description:	Where reference is required by legislation or regulation to the use of filtering respirators, compliance with CSA Standard CSA Z94.4.1:21 Performance of Filtering Respirators is accepted in signatory jurisdictions.
Timeline for Implementation:	December 2023
Conditions for Implementation:	Federal: No action required as the federal regulations have been updated to include reference to the CSA Group Standard CSA Z94.4.1, Performance of Filtering Respirators. Alberta: Legislative change required. Alberta would need to amend Alberta Occupational Health and Safety Code or use an alternative legislative tool, such as an allowance, to facilitate adoption. British Columbia: No action required. Manitoba: No action required. MB has the ability through regulation to recognize equal to or greater than standards. New Brunswick: Administrative policy change required. Newfoundland and Labrador: Regulation change required. Northwest Territories: Regulation change required. Nova Scotia: No action required as current provincial regulations have been updated to include acceptance of reference to the CSA Group Standard CSA Z94.4.1, Performance of Filtering Respirators. Nunavut: Regulation change required. Ontario: For non-COVID workplace applications, regulation change required to formalize option to use instead of U.S. NIOSH approved.

Prince Edward Island:
Regulation change required.

Quebec:
Regulation change required.

Saskatchewan:
No action required – ministry has adopted as “approved standard” as per legislated power.

Yukon:
Administrative policy change required.

Timeline for Reporting on Implementation of Conditions: September 2023

Exemption from Performance of Filtering Respirators Standard:

Reason for Exemption: